

Beyond Duty

The Reason Some Soldiers Commit Atrocities

Walter S. Zapotoczny Jr.

Soldiers have gone to war throughout the ages. Some commit atrocities. There are some similar factors that caused these actions.

- Historians in large part have described in detail the actions of military groups that have committed brutalities, but not have dealt with the factors that contributed to those actions.
- This book will appeal to historians and readers of all levels interested in military history and the reasons behind the actions of soldiers in combat.
- A reference book for students of psychology studying the effects of external and internal forces on young soldiers.
