

For the Fatherland

An Historical Fiction Novel

Walter S. Zapotoczny Jr.

A cautionary tale of how extremism and a simplistic world view can take otherwise ordinary people and make them commit, overlook and justify extraordinary evil.

- The blonde-haired blue-eyed Kurt grew up in the 1930s and was caught up in the maelstrom of Hitler's Germany.
- Kurt was only one of millions caught up in this perversion of the truth.
- Amidst the simple pleasures and joys of childhood and young teenage years, Kurt was indoctrinated into a belief system.
